^{1/} Political activity as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act means the dissemination of political propaganda and any other activity which the person engaging therein believes will, or which he intends to, prevail upon, indoctrinate, convert, induce, persuade, or in any other way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.

EXHIBIT B (Insert)

(3), (4), (5), & (6).

There are no written instructions, agreements, arrangements or authorizations pursuant to which registrant is acting for, or receiving funds from, the foreign principal named in Exhibit B, i.e., The Dalai Lama.

The oral instructions pursuant to which the registrant is acting on behalf of the Dalai Lama are to accomplish the following objectives:

- 1) To confer with delegations at the United Nations in order to further the cause and interests of the Tibetan people and therefore to encourage the passage of resolutions in the United Nations. This is a continuation of similar work done in the past by representatives of the Dalai Lama in New York.
- 2) To develop an understanding on the part of the public for Tibet, its problems, its intentions, and of the implications of the Chinese Communist invasion of Tibet.
- 3) To promote and facilitate an education of Tibetan exiles, particularly in the democratic processes of the free world.
- 4) To assist, at the direction of the Dalai Lama, in the handling of Tibetan refugee problems.

The salaries and expenditures to be incurred for the performance of the foregoing duties are in the discretion of the foreign principal.
